CODE TO REGULATE, MONITOR AND REPORT OF TRADING BY INSIDERS

[Under Regulation 9(1) of SEBI (Prohibition of Insider Trading) Regulations, 2015 as amended on 31st December, 2018]

1. INTRODUCTION:

The Securities and Exchange Board of India (SEBI), in its endeavor to protect the interests of investors in general, had formulated the SEBI (Prohibition of Insider Trading) Regulations, 2015 under the powers conferred on it under the SEBI Act, 1992. These regulations were notified on 15th January, 2015 and came into force with effect from 15th May, 2015 and the same were applicable to all companies whose shares are listed on Indian stock exchanges.

It was mandatory in terms of the Regulations for every listed company/entity to formulate a Code of Conduct to Regulate, Monitor and Report trading in securities of the Company by its employees and connected persons.

In order to comply with the mandatory requirement of the Regulations, Baba Arts Limited (hereinafter referred to as 'the Company') had formulated a specific Code to Regulate, Monitor and Report trading in securities of the Company for use by its Directors, Officers, Employees and Connected Persons.

The Securities and Exchange Board of India issued Securities and Exchange Board of India (Prohibition of Insider Trading) (Amendment) Regulations, 2018 (Amended Regulations) on 31st December, 2018 to come in to force from April 01, 2019.

With a view to comply with the requirement of Amended Regulations, Baba Arts Limited has formulated a Revised Code to Regulate, Monitor and Report trading in securities of the Company for use by its Directors, Officers, Employees and Connected Persons.

3.2 The Compliance Officer shall assist all Directors, Officers, Employees and Connected Persons in resolving their queries and addressing any clarifications regarding the Securities & Exchange Board of India (Prohibition of Insider Trading) Regulations, 2015 and this Code.

4. Chinese Wall Procedures

4.1 General

The Board of Directors of the Company has established policies, procedures and physical arrangements (collectively ‘Chinese Walls’) designed to manage confidential information and prevent the inadvertent spread and misuse of inside information, or the appearance thereof by creating separate areas that have access to Inside Information (“Insider Areas”) from those who do not have such access (“Public Areas”). Where Chinese Walls arrangements are in place employees working within an Insider Area are prohibited from communicating any Confidential or Inside Information to employees in Public Areas without the prior approval of Compliance Officer. Employees within a Chinese Wall have a responsibility to ensure the Chinese Wall is not breached deliberately or inadvertently. Known or suspected breaches of the Chinese Wall must be referred to the Compliance Officer immediately.

The establishment of Chinese Walls is not intended to suggest that within Insider Areas material, Confidential Information can circulate freely. Within Insider Areas, the 'need-to-know' policy shall be fully in effect.

4.2 To maintain permanent and effective Chinese Walls the following methods shall be followed by the Company:

- Inside information shall be restricted to specific locations within the office premises of the Company.
- The habitual use of code words to refer to price sensitive transactions;
- Records are maintained of the staff who require access to inside information for the proper discharge of their function;
- trading in shares of the company by staff who are in Insider Area shall be monitored;
- All staff with access to inside information shall be adequately supervised, and suitably trained to understand and fulfil their obligations with regard to Chinese Walls;

All information is treated as confidential and the 'need to know' principle applies at all times.

4.3 Crossing of Chinese Wall

If any employee of the company in "Out Side Area" gets access to unpublished price sensitive information he shall immediately inform the same to the Compliance Officer and he will be allowed to Cross the Chinese Wall for a temporary period till the said unpublished price sensitive information becomes available in public domain. Till such time all restrictions applicable to employees in "Inside Area" shall be applicable to the concerned employee who has crossed the Chinese Wall. Immediately after the information becomes available in public domain the concerned employee will be allowed to cross over to the "Out Side Area".

4.4 Role and Responsibility of Compliance Officer

- i) The Compliance Officer will be responsible for implementation and monitoring compliance of the Chinese Wall Policy.
- ii) The Compliance Officer will also provide information related to the Chinese Wall policy and procedures to all employees and connected persons.
- iii) The Compliance Officer will report incidents of violations and breach of the policy to the Audit Committee/ Board of Directors.

5. Preservation of "Price Sensitive Information"

5.1 All information shall be handled within the Company on a need-to-know basis and no unpublished price sensitive information shall not be communicated to any person except in furtherance of the insider's legitimate purposes, performance of duties or discharge of his legal obligations.

5.2 Unpublished price sensitive information may be communicated, provided, allowed access to or procured, in connection with a transaction which entails:

- an obligation to make an open offer under the takeover regulations where the Board of Directors of the Company is of informed opinion that the proposed transaction is in the best interests of the Company; or
- not attracting the obligation to make an open offer under the takeover regulations but where the Board of Directors of the Company is of informed opinion that the proposed transaction is in the best interests of the Company and the information that constitute unpublished price sensitive information is disseminated to be made generally available at least two trading days prior to the proposed transaction being effected in such form as the Board of Directors may determine.

However, the Board of Directors shall require the parties to execute agreements to contract confidentiality and non-disclosure obligations on the part of such parties and such parties shall keep information so received confidential, except for the limited purpose and shall not otherwise trade in securities of the Company when in possession of unpublished price sensitive information

5.3 Need to Know:

- (i) “need to know” basis means that Unpublished Price Sensitive Information should be disclosed only to those within the Company who need the information to discharge their duty and whose possession of such information will not give rise to a conflict of interest or appearance of misuse of the information.
- (ii) All non-public information directly received by any employee should immediately be reported to the head of the department.

5.4 Limited access to confidential information

Files containing confidential information shall be kept secure. Computer files must have adequate security of login and password, etc.

6. Trading when in possession of unpublished price sensitive information.

6.1 No insider shall trade in securities that are listed or proposed to be listed on a stock exchange when in possession of Unpublished price sensitive information:

When a person who has traded in securities has been in possession of unpublished price sensitive information, his trades would be presumed to have been motivated by the knowledge and awareness of such information in his possession.

Provided that the insider may prove his innocence by demonstrating the circumstances including the following:-

(a) the transaction is an off-market inter-se transfer between insiders who were in possession of the same unpublished price sensitive information without being in breach of regulation 3 and both parties had made a conscious and informed trade decision.

(Provided that such unpublished price sensitive information was not obtained under Sub Regulation (3) of Regulation 3 of the Insider Trading Regulations.

Provided further that such off market transactions shall be reported by the insiders to the Company within Two Working Days. The Company shall in turn notify the particulars of such transaction to the stock exchanges on which the securities of the Company are listed within Two Trading Days from receipt of the disclosure or from becoming aware of such information.

(b) The transaction was carried out through the block deal window mechanism between persons who were in possession of the unpublished price sensitive information without being in breach of regulation 3 and both parties had made a conscious and informed trade decision.

(Provided that such unpublished price sensitive information was not obtained under Sub Regulation (3) of Regulation 3 of the Insider Trading Regulations.

(c) The Transaction in question was carried out pursuant to a Statutory or Regulatory obligation to carry out a bonafide transaction.

(d) The Transaction in question was undertaken pursuant to exercise of stock options in respect of which the exercise price was predetermined in compliance with applicable regulations.

6.2 in case of non-individual insiders:-

(a) the individuals who were in possession of such unpublished price sensitive information were different from the individuals taking trading decisions and such decision making individuals were not in possession of such unpublished price sensitive information when they took the decision to trade;

(b) appropriate and adequate arrangements were in place to ensure that these regulations are not violated and no unpublished price sensitive Information was communicated by the individuals possessing the information to the individuals taking trading decisions and there is no evidence of such arrangements having been breached.

(c) the trades were pursuant to a trading plan set up in accordance with regulation 5.

6.3 In the case of concerned persons the onus of establishing, that they were not in possession of unpublished price sensitive information, shall be on such connected persons and in other cases, the onus would be on the Board.

7. Prevention of misuse of “Unpublished Price Sensitive Information”

Employees and connected persons designated on the basis of their functional role ("designated persons") in the Company shall be governed by an internal code of conduct governing dealing in securities.

8. Trading Plan

8.1 An insider shall be entitled to formulate a trading plan for dealing in securities of the Company and present it to the Compliance Officer for approval and public disclosure pursuant to which trades may be carried out on his behalf in accordance with such plan.

8.2 Trading Plan shall:

- i) not entail commencement of trading on behalf of the insider earlier than six months from the public disclosure of the plan;
- ii) not entail trading for the period between the twentieth trading day prior to the last day of any financial period for which results are required to be announced by the issuer of the securities and the second trading day after the disclosure of such financial results;
- iii) entail trading for a period of not less than twelve months;
- iv) not entail overlap of any period for which another trading plan is already in existence;
- v) set out either the value of trades to be effected or the number of securities to be traded along with the nature of the trade and the intervals at, or dates on which such trades shall be effected; and
- vi) not entail trading in securities for market abuse.

8.3 The Compliance Officer shall consider the Trading Plan made as above and shall approve it forthwith. However, he shall be entitled to take express undertakings as may be necessary to enable such assessment and to approve and monitor the implementation of the plan as per provisions of the Regulations.

8.4 The Trading Plan once approved shall be irrevocable and the Insider shall mandatorily have to implement the plan, without being entitled to either deviate from it or to execute any trade in the securities outside the scope of the trading plan.

However, the implementation of the trading plan shall not be commenced, if at the time of formulation of the plan, the Insider is in possession of any unpublished price sensitive information and the said information has not become generally available at the time of the commencement of implementation. The commencement of the Plan shall be deferred until such unpublished price sensitive information becomes generally available information. Further, the Insider shall also not be allowed to deal in securities of the Company, if the date of trading in securities of the Company, as per the approved Trading Plan, coincides with the date of closure of Trading Window announced by the Compliance Officer.

- 8.5 Upon approval of the trading plan, the compliance officer shall notify the plan to the stock exchanges on which the securities are listed.

9. Trading Window and Window Closure

- 9.1
- (i) The trading period, i.e. the trading period of the stock exchanges, called ‘trading window’, is available for trading in the Company’s securities.
 - (ii) The trading window shall be, inter alia, closed at the time -
 - (a) Declaration of financial results (quarterly, half yearly and annually)
